The New Era Aviation Training Seminar focuses on New Threats to In-Flight Safety

London, UK, July 30, 2009: This Aviation Training Seminar (ATS) is a first of its kind in Florida, focusing on two new threats to in-flight safety: Survival at sea and how to successfully ditch an airplane in case of an in-flight emergency. We are pleased to announce that Airborne Systems in conjunction with Aeropodium is presenting The New Era Seminar - Challenges of In-Flight Safety, dedicated to providing flight personnel, travellers, pilots, flight crew members with an excellent learning and networking opportunity focusing on two serious threats in the flight environment. The participants will also experience the actual deployment of life raft and survival equipment.

Seminar Speakers:

Capt. Denis Murphy, CEO, Murphy Intl.

Mr. Randy Boone, President, Aviation Survival Technologies

Mr. Charles R. Morgenstein, ESQ. Founder and President of MMO-Legal Services, LLC

This Seminar is organized by Aeropodium and there is a limited number of places available as it is a boardroom style event. The delegate fee is US$549 and it includes access to the Seminar, the networking breaks as well as the event proceedings.
