ABAG to give Keynote Address at Business Aviation Summit during LABACE

London, UK, May 18, 2009: This international summit about the latest developments in business aviation and prospects for the future in Latin America will take place on Saturday 15th August 2009 at LABACE in Sao Paulo, Brazil.

The Keynote Address will be given by a senior representative of ABAG (Brazilian Business Aviation Association).

The event will be chaired by Respicio A. Espirito Santo Jr., President, Brazilian Institute of Strategic Studies and Public Policies in Air Transport - Instituto CEPTA.

The Summit will explore the latest developments in the business aviation sector of Latin America and new business opportunities and challenges in the region. It will also provide the platform for manufacturers and operators as well as any organisation interested in this exciting marketplace, to explore all aspects affecting the future of this industry.

This event is a unique opportunity for all participants to debate the future of business aviation, discuss different business models, enhance their knowledge about the regional market, learn about the regional infrastructure development, and network with leading experts as well as business aircraft operators and manufacturers.

Issues to be discussed include regulations, the manufacturers' perspective, the air taxi and air charter sectors, financing, technology, a forecast for the future, airports infrastructure and other topics that are related to the business aviation industry of the region.

Who should attend: Business aircraft operators, manufacturers, consultants, bankers, lawyers, airport executives, aviation operators, leasing and financing companies, insurance companies and all professionals with an interest in the growth of business aviation and future opportunities in Latin America.
