Leasing, Financing and Growth to be Explored at the 2nd Annual European Aviation Summit in Iceland

London, UK, March 8, 2011: The 2nd Annual "European Aviation Asset Management" Summit will take place on April 7, 2011 in Iceland. This international event is sponsored and hosted by the Icelandair Group and Loftleidir Icelandic.

Panagiotis Panagopoulos, CEO and Founder of Aeropodium pointed out that "following the success of the summit in 2010, the 2nd Annual event will provide the platform for high level debate, exchange of ideas and information as well as extensive networking opportunities for aviation executives from Europe and around the world."

The main purpose of the conference is to debate issues that affect asset management in the European aviation market. Topics to be discussed will include Strategic and Operational Aspects of an Efficient Aviation Asset Management, Leasing New and Used Aircraft: Requirements, Regulations, Risks and Strategies, Aircraft and Lease Management Support for European Airlines, Legal Aspects of Aircraft Leasing Disputes, the Future of Turboprops in the European Market, the Advantages of Freighter Conversion, and the Isle of Man as a European Aviation Centre.

Confirmed Speakers include a Senior Representative of Icelandair Group, Mark Byrne of ICM Aviation, Christian Castang of Altair Aero Projects, Spiro Farougiyas of ILFC, Michael Fuerst of Airbus Freighter Conversion, Jerome Gabory of ATR Aircraft, Yves Lavigne of Regio Lease, Roland H. Moore, Aviation Attorney, Neil Moyes of Lufthansa Consulting, Robin Springthorpe of Bird & Bird, Gary Weissel of SH&E, and a Senior Representative of Bombardier Commercial Aircraft.

The event will also provide the opportunity for networking with airlines, aircraft manufacturers, banks, airports, law firms, financial analysts, leasing and finance companies and any aviation professional involved with the development of the aviation asset management sector in Europe.
