Taxation in Business Aviation and Legal Issues to be debated in California

London, UK, March 28, 2011: California is hosting the Legal Aviation Workshop "Legal Aspects of Taxation in Business Aviation" this Spring. This event will take place on May 10, 2011 in San Francisco, CA and it is sponsored by Aero&Marine Tax Professionals, Aero Law Group, California Bank & Trust, and Allen Matkins.

Panagiotis Panagopoulos, CEO and Founder of Aeropodium pointed out that "it is a unique meeting that will provide hard-to-find information as well as great networking opportunities".

Themes to be discussed include the FAA Sole Purpose Entity Issue, how you can deduct your Aircraft, Bonus Depreciation & 179 Deductions, Property Tax in California, Personal Use of Business Aircraft, Disallowance of Deductions, Leasing and Charters, and Sales and Use Tax in California.

The workshop will be led by Thomas A. Alston of Aero&Marine Tax Professionals, Kevin C. Austin of Aero Law Group, Timothy L. Austin of Aero Law Group, David Lucero of Lucero Enterprises, Kelly A. Pearl of California Bank & Trust, Nathan R. Pietila of Aero Law Group, and Roberta V. Romberg of Allen Matkins.

This Legal Aviation Workshop (LAW) is organized by Aeropodium. For more information, please visit the official workshop website: www.aeropodium.com/law/taxation.html
