Experts meet to discuss insurance in business aviation and how the market works

London, UK, April 7, 2013: Aeropodium presents for the second time in two years the successful seminar on insurance in business aviation to be held on April 25, 2013 in London, UK. This event is hosted by Gates and Partners LLP in central London.

Panagiotis Panagopoulos, CEO and Founder of Aeropodium pointed out that "the aim of this event is to provide an explanation of basic insurance terms in the context of aircraft finance and ownership structures".

This seminar is sponsored by Airclaims and distinguished speakers will contribute with their knowledge and experience, including John Bayley of Airclaims, Saleema Brohi of Gates and Partners, Peter Bull of Horizon Aerospace, David Chamberlain of Gates and Partners, Jerry Flaxman of Jerry Flaxman Consulting, Vanessa Leigh of Gates and Partners, and Anthony McCarthy of Willis.

The seminar will concentrate on the practical aspects of how the insurance market works. Gates and Partners together with a panel of brokers, underwriters and adjusters will explain the legal and practical aspects of aviation insurance. The discussions will include an overview of insurance language and practices in aviation, issues affecting the finance industry, a case study based on a runway overrun causing substantial aircraft damage, and practical considerations from a lessor's and financier's perspective. This event is aimed at financiers, lessors, owners and operators of aircraft.

This business aviation event is organized by Aeropodium. For more information, please visit the official website www.aeropodium.com/cp/insurance.html
