Legal and Practical Aspects of Aviation Insurance to be explored in London

London, UK, August 21, 2011: A new seminar is presented by Aeropodium on November 4, 2011 in London, UK. The "Insurance in Business Aviation" will be hosted and sponsored by Gates and Partners. The seminar is aimed at financiers, lessors, owners and operators of aircraft.

The aim of this event is to provide an explanation of basic insurance terms in the context of aircraft finance and ownership structures. The seminar will also concentrate on the practical aspects of how the insurance market works. Gates and Partners together with a panel of brokers, underwriters and adjusters will explain the legal and practical aspects of aviation insurance. Themes to be explored include an overview of insurance language and practices in aviation, a debate of issues affecting the finance industry, claims handling, risk management, and an international update.
