2ND ANNUAL AVIATION ASSET MANAGEMENT IN THE MIDDLE EAST SUMMIT TO BE HELD IN DUBAI

London, UK, May 30, 2010: The 2nd Annual "Aviation Asset Management in the Middle East" Summit will take place on December 6, 2010 in Dubai, UAE.

Panagiotis Panagopoulos, CEO and Founder of Aeropodium believes that "aircraft operators, aircraft manufacturers, banks, airports, law firms, financial analysts, leasing and finance companies and any aviation professional with an interest in the aviation asset management sector, will have a unique opportunity to discuss and explore the latest developments in the Middle East".

The main purpose of the conference is to debate issues that affect asset management in the region. Topics to be explored include the management of aviation assets for airlines and corporate aircraft operators, appraisals, valuation, pre-purchase inspection, leasing management, finance and strategic planning, risk management, portfolio management, remarketing, repossession, technical asset management, engine maintenance, airworthiness assessment, aircraft sales, aircraft delivery, asset recovery as well as safety and regulatory compliance.

This conference is organized by Aeropodium. For more information, please visit the official conference website:
