Aircraft repossession and recovery to be debated in London

London, UK, August 30, 2014: Aeropodium presents the 7th International "Aircraft Repossession" Symposium to be held on October 9, 2014 in London, United Kingdom. This major event will be hosted and sponsored by the international law firm Kennedys.

Panagiotis Panagopoulos, CEO and Founder of Aeropodium pointed out that "following the previous success of the conference in Miami, London, Dubai and India, it will take place for the seventh time in order to explore the latest developments in the field of aircraft repossession and recovery".

This event will provide the platform for high level debate, exchange of ideas and information as well as extensive networking opportunities for aviation executives from around the world. Themes to be discussed will include managing aircraft repossession, location and recovery services, unlawful expropriation, aircraft extraction, the role of lessors and banks, due diligence, legal aspects, regulations, tax issues, arranging appraisals, selling an aircraft, engine recovery and repossession, asset remarketing, airlines in default of lease agreements, the Cape Town Convention, security, insurance, and all aspects of executing repossession.

Expert speakers who will contribute to the discussions include Nabeel Ahmed of blueskies, Jan Bosak of Elix Aviation Capital, David Chamberlain of Kennedys, Gurinder Dhillon of Aircraft Recovery International, Maximo Gainza of Ascend, Yves Lavigne of World Assets Transition, Roland McKay of kayway.aero, Robert Ricketts of Clark Ricketts, and a senior representative of IBA.

It is a unique networking opportunity for operators, aircraft manufacturers, banks, financial analysts, leasing and finance companies and any aviation professional with an interest in the field of aircraft repossession and recovery.

This event is organized by Aeropodium. For more information, please visit the official website www.aeropodium.com/aircraftrepo.html
