Legal aspects of aircraft leasing and financing to be explored by aviation experts

London, UK, October 30, 2014: Aeropodium is the organizer of the legal aviation workshop on legal aspects of aircraft leasing and financing to be held on November 14, 2014 in Washington, DC. This event is hosted by the law firm Cozen O'Connor.

Following the previous success of this workshop in Washington DC, London and Dubai, it is offered for the fifteenth time and it has been approved for CLE and CPD Credits. Distinguished speakers will contribute to the event with their expertise and experience including Mark Atwood (Member, Cozen O'Connor), Jamie Baldwin (Lecturer, Author and Consultant on Air Transportation, Adjunct Instructor, Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University), Bruce Burnett (Senior Vice President Technical, AVITAS), Don Kenny (Senior Vice President, Falcon Insurance Agency) and Thomas J. Whalen (Attorney at Law, Schott Law Associates and Former Member of the US Delegation to the Cape Town Convention and Participant in the Drafting of the Agreement).

The workshop will cover issues such as an introduction to aircraft leasing and contract law, operating leases, the Cape Town Convention, technical lease language, aircraft, crew, maintenance and aviation insurance.
