Legal Aviation Workshop to be Held in New York about all Aspects of Security Interests in Commercial Aircraft

London, UK, January 26, 2011: Aeropodium is honoured to announce the Legal Aviation Workshop (LAW) "Security Interests in Commercial Aircraft" to be held on April 13, 2011 in New York.

This major event is hosted by Kaye Scholer LLP and it will cover the following themes: Introduction to Security Interests in Commercial Aircraft, Cross-Border Matters, Multiple-Aircraft Transactions: Warehouse Agreements and Enhanced Equipment Trust Certificates, Cape Town Update, Repossession and Remarketing, and the event will conclude with a Practical Exercise.

Panagiotis Panagopoulos, CEO & Founder of Aeropodium pointed out that "the forthcoming LAW in New York will offer hard-to-find information, the opportunity to participate in high level discussions, and extensive networking opportunities".

The Workshop Leader is Stewart Herman who has experience in the areas of structured financing and other transactions involving commercial and business aircraft and other equipment, other secured lending and corporate transactions, and airline bankruptcies and workouts. He has represented domestic and international leasing companies, commercial and investment banks, aircraft and engine manufacturers, domestic and foreign airlines, monoline insurance companies, and hedge funds.

This Legal Aviation Workshop (LAW) is organized by Aeropodium. For more information and to register, please visit the official workshop website:
