CORPORATE AVIATION IN THE MIDDLE EAST TO BE EXPLORED AT SUMMIT IN QATAR

London, UK, July 29, 2010: MECAS, the Middle East Corporate Aviation Summit will take place in Doha, Qatar on February 7-8, 2011.

This two-day Summit will explore the latest developments in the corporate aviation sector of the Middle East and new business opportunities and challenges in the region. It will also provide the platform for manufacturers and operators as well as any organization interested in this marketplace, to explore all aspects affecting the future of the industry. It is a unique opportunity to debate the future of business aviation in the region, learn about the latest developments in light jets, explore the air taxi market, discuss different business models, enhance your knowledge about the regional market, learn about the regional infrastructure development, and network with leading experts as well as business aircraft operators from the Middle East.

Who should attend: Business aircraft operators, manufacturers, consultants, bankers, lawyers, airport executives, aviation leasing and financing companies, insurance companies and all professionals with an interest in the growth of business aviation and future opportunities in the Middle East.

MECAS 2011 is organized by Aeropodium.
