SUMMIT DEDICATED TO CORPORATE AVIATION IN THE US IS EXPECTED TO ATTRACT INTERNATIONAL INTEREST

London, UK, August 20, 2010: USCAS, the US Corporate Aviation Summit will take place in Miami, FL on 22nd & 23rd February 2011.

Following the success of ECAS in Europe, this two-day Summit will explore the latest developments in the US corporate aviation sector and new business opportunities and challenges. It will also provide the platform for manufacturers and operators as well as any organization interested in this exciting marketplace, to explore all aspects affecting the future of this industry. It is a unique opportunity to debate the future of business aviation, learn about the latest developments in light jets, explore the air taxi market, discuss different business models, enhance our knowledge about the US market, learn about the regional infrastructure development, and network with leading experts as well as business aircraft operators.

Panagiotis Panagopoulos, CEO & Founder of Aeropodium pointed out that "the time has come for a high quality networking event that will become the main meeting for the corporate aviation sector in the US. Light jets have taken off successfully and heavy aircraft are also in demand for air charter operations. Let's talk about the future of the industry and the unlimited opportunities for operators and pilot-owners."

Who should attend: Business aircraft operators, manufacturers, consultants, bankers, lawyers, airport executives, aviation operators, leasing and financing companies, insurance companies and all professionals with an interest in the growth of business aviation and future opportunities in the US.

USCAS 2011 is organized by Aeropodium, the experts in aviation conference projects and training seminars worldwide.
